From the desk of our Executive Director Anita Bowen

We spent a good deal of time driving east this summer to watch our son play baseball in Ohio. We enjoyed taking the backroads and have many great memories to treasure. The trips, however, didn't come without many routes where we found "detour" or "road closed to thru traffic" signs. Since our travel was occurring on vacation days or on the weekend when we had plenty of time to get to our destination, we didn't stress about the extra time needed to get around the detour. But, on days where I am in a hurry, I probably don't react the same to these signs...how about you?

I love Katherine Wolf's quote that says: Perhaps some detours aren't detours at all. Perhaps they are actually the path. I have been trying to remind myself of this during the past few years. It is always easy to complain, but what if I used that energy instead to appreciate the sights enjoyed, the people met, the lessons learned, and the memories made during the detour. Yes, they aren't planned, but boy, if we can just look at the detour differently, I think it's better for our spirit... and blood pressure!

Many times, individuals and families meet up with BCSSI/BATS on one of those "detours" in life...maybe it's a fall that has caused a loved one to need a walker or pair of crutches and we can help with our medical equipment (free) loan program; maybe it's the loss of a spouse and social isolation brings the spouse left behind to visit looking for friendship and we have a plethora of activities that will check that box; maybe a life situation has a family member or friend with a vehicle that is not running or they no longer feel comfortable driving and Boone Area Transit System (BATS) can get them on the schedule Monday-Friday to get wherever they need to go. There's so much good happening here to provide for the best quality of life for community members, and when we meet during those detours, team members are ready to jump right in to make it feel like it indeed was actually the path.

Fall is my favorite and there's a lot happening in Lebanon, Zionsville, and other places and spaces throughout Boone County to celebrate this wonderful season! I hope to see you at the Senior Health & Wellness Expo on Saturday, October 5th. Invite someone new to join you as we continue to grow and add new features to this event that is one of the area's largest and longest running at 16 years this year! If you run into a detour sign heading to the Boone County Fairgrounds, just smile and know that we'll be waiting for you when you get there and will welcome you with open arms.

Until Next Time, Anita

Earlier this summer we learned how therapeutic drumming is a way to enhance your mental, emotional, & physical well-being. Thank you Allison Phillips of Art of Wellness, for helping us tap into the rhythm of life.

Join us on September 4 where Allison will be performing during our Lunch and Learn. More details on page 8.

We certainly had a cozy good time at Caring Hands Camp this summer. Twenty BCSSI volunteers & sixty Caring Hands Campers from the Boys and Girls Club Boone-Zionsville Unit came together to make blankets for Project Linus of Hendricks County. We love connecting the generations. We are feeling blessed to be a part of this partnership!

Congratulations to our Matter of Balance graduates! They completed their 8 week course to view falls as controllable, to set goals for increasing activities, make changes to reduce falls and to exercise to increase strength and balance. A special thank you to Pandora and Amanda from Purdue Extension - Boone County for bringing this program to Zionsville!

Sheriff Tony Harris was on the beat at a BCSSI Lunch and Learn sharing information about frauds and scams targeting older adults. Thanks to the Boone County Sheriff's Office for all you do for our seniors & our community! Also pictured is Matron, Brittany Hicks. Brittany is the daughter of our very own Director of Personal Services, Cindy Hickson.

What a mysterious time we have had this year hosting our NEW and very popular Mystery Trips! The group traveled to Titus Bakery this summer and received a behind the scenes look at how donuts are made...followed by a sweet treat! Thank you Titus Bakery! Turn to page 11 to learn about the LAST Mystery Trip of the year on September 26....you will not want to miss this one!

Classy Crafters made beautiful diamond art butterflies. Thank you to Kathy Jedwabny for leading the class. Turn to page 8 to learn more about our Classy Crafters classes this fall...the class will be making fall décor and a Halloween House.

SAVE THE DATES: The BCSSI Holiday Silent Auction will be held November 15-21 in our Community Room. More details to come in the Nov./Dec. Senior Sounds. Proceeds support BCSSI. If you would like to make a donation to the silent auction please contact Anita Bowen or Sonya Shoup at 765-482-5220 or 317-873-8939.

A special THANK YOU to our Senior Sounds volunteers who work hard to get your newsletter prepared to mail to you!

Check back in our Nov./Dec. Senior Sounds for a full listing of our medal winners!

Attention Athletes!
Come join us on the Senior Expo stage

(event details on the next page) on Saturday, Oct. 5th at 10:00AM as we recognize your accomplishments. Wear your Olympic shirt and medals!

BCSSI Spotlight Eric Imboden Volunteer & BCSSI Board Member

How and when did you first get involved with BCSSI?

My sister-in-law, Zoe Farrow, was on the board (still is) and nominated me as a potential board member. I came on the board in early 2019, so over 5 years now.

What is your favorite activity to help with at BCSSI? Probably the Olympics, I love to see all the excitement of the participants, and the breakfast is always great, and the speakers are always fantastic as well. It's just a great, fun event.

What makes Boone County special?

I grew up in Missouri (pronounced Missouri-uh by true natives), then lived in Tennessee for a few years before following my wife back home to Indiana. I find Boone County is very much like where I grew up, full of hard-working, honest, kind, generous, and level-headed folks. I love East TN, but I feel most at home in the midwest. I have lived in Boone County now for 38 years.

Family: I'm married to Sandy Farrow, whose family has farmed in the Jamestown/Advance area for many years. We have 3 sons, Jackson, Lucas, and Bennett (all grown and out of college now), and Bennett is married to Kelso. We have no pets other than occasionally serving as dog-sitters for Bennett and Kelso's Great Dane, Diesel.

Profession: I'm the Extension IT Specialist for Purdue Extension.

Hobbies/Interests: I love sports (mostly Chiefs, Colts, Royals, and Boilermakers), music, movies, reading, and learning anything I can about all kinds of technologies.

Something unique about you?

I roast my own coffee...I got into it years ago, and I've roasted on everything from a tiny "hot air popper" style roaster up to a giant commercial roaster. These days, I use a heat gun and a metal bowl (known as the Heat Gun Dog Bowl, or HGDB, method) to roast a pound or two at a time. In case anyone wonders, the heat gun has never been used for anything other than roasting coffee, and the dog bowl has never been used by a dog.

What do you want others to know about BCSSI or why should they volunteer, donate or use our services?

I've been associated with many volunteer and community groups over the years (Little League, Youth As Resources, Boone County Leadership, Area Plan Commission, etc.), and I've found BCSSI to be one of the (if not THE) best run, supported, organized, and energized of any in my past experience. Everything I've seen here has shown the kind of dedication, compassion, respect, and inclusiveness that I believe the seniors in our community deserve.

My Happy Place... in a little bottle.

By Jessica Evans, BCSSI Director of Outreach/Caregiver Support

I remember when I was 13 years old, all the girls my age had begun wearing makeup. I asked my mom relentlessly to let me wear some makeup, but it was always met with the same response “You will not wear makeup until you’re 16!” She finally broke down and bought me my first lip gloss in bubble gum flavor and she let me polish my nails...as long as it was clear or frosted pearl (the only color that my mom & my nanny wore). I was finally feeling like a cool girl with my shiny lips & pearlized nails (even though I felt like the nail color was a little old fashioned). Funny how trends circle back around...pearlized nail polish is on trend again. They call it the glazed doughnut look. And yes, just like my mom & my nanny pearlized/glazed doughnut is my favorite go to look for my nails.

I had 3 years of learning to perfect my manicuring skills before I could experiment with makeup. I think it created an obsession with nail care that I still have to this day! I obtained my manicuring license 20 years ago and I worked as a nail tech at a local salon before coming to BCSSI.

Some of my favorite social media influencers are nail techs. One day while mindlessly scrolling I came across a post that made me stop and take notice. It was this little turquoise blue bottle with tiny seashells, called a cuticle buddy. It immediately made me think of my happy place...Bowman’s Beach, Sanibel Island, FL. I was influenced and I couldn’t click buy now fast enough.

The delivery of my beach in a bottle came at a much-needed time last spring. My dad had taken a fall and was hospitalized at IU Methodist Hospital for several weeks. There were many stressful moments during this time frame. All I wanted to do was escape from it all. I took many hospital walks and discovered several beautiful courtyards where I could sit & decompress. But we all know how springtime goes here in Indiana. And it was on one of those days when it felt more like winter than spring that I discovered the Palm Tree Lobby. It just drew me in...I took a seat under the palm trees and busted out my cuticle buddy. Rolled the ocean mist scented oil on my cuticles, massaged the oil in, cupped my hands up to my nose and took several deep cleansing breaths and in that moment, I was in my Happy Place. A few minutes to escape to my Happy Place was all I needed to reenergize and calm my mind before heading back to my dad’s room to face whatever came next.

Summertime is in full swing and most people are planning or returning from vacations to their Happy Places. Being a caregiver myself I know that vacations are possible, but they come with a lot of planning, along with a back up plan. I also know that sometimes vacations are impossible for us caregivers. Escaping to your Happy Place in your mind might be the next best thing.

The pros of traveling in your mind:

No packing worries.

No travel delays

No lost luggage

Weather is always perfect

Relaxation

Reduces Stress

Always find your Happy Place. No matter where you are. ~Jessica

For those of you who are not familiar with my story. My dad sadly passed away last November due to complications from his fall. My cuticle buddy was right there with me through his final days of hospice care. And now it helps me cope with my grief... You see my dad was a snowbird and sunny southwest Florida was his Happy Place. It takes me back to happy times with my dad...like this one at Fisherman's Village in Punta Gorda, FL. My dad's favorite place to catch the sunset.

Pumpkin Dip

From: chocolatecoveredkatie.com

1-15 oz. can pumpkin puree

8 oz. cream cheese, at room temp.

2 tsp. cinnamon

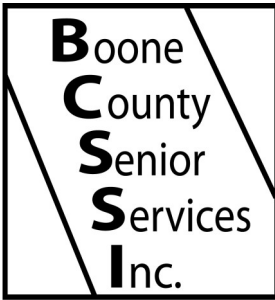

1 tsp. pumpkin pie spice

1 1/2 tsp. vanilla extract

1/2 c. powdered sugar

Blend all ingredients in a blender or food processor until creamy. Serve with graham crackers, sliced apples and pears, or pretzels.
